Position Summary: The Anti-Trafficking/Sexual Assault Case Manager assists individuals and their families that are experiencing human trafficking or sexual assault in the community and in residence. The advocacy and support services include providing direct and indirect services that promote personal safety, safe housing and self-sufficiency. This position will focus on services for clients identifying as survivors of human trafficking or sexual assault seeking shelter services, as well as, community services. This position will be working in the jurisdictions where Samaritan House is identified as the service provider for the Hampton Roads Human Trafficking Task Force as services are needed.

Job Responsibilities:

1. Assess individual and families for emergent needs; (i.e.; trauma-informed crisis intervention, safe housing and/or other relocation assistance, emotional support, safety services, safety planning, direct referrals and connection to individual counseling, support groups, and other therapeutic services).
2. Provide additional trauma-informed support including information about the criminal justice process and victims' rights; and referrals to other victim service programs and resources.
3. Provide long-term support and case management by assisting with safe and affordable housing options if needed, such as rapid re- housing, and other permanent housing options.
4. Develop knowledge of community resources, utilize advocacy skills and teach self-advocacy so families can expand their use of resources in the community.
5. Teach practical skills such as self-advocacy, problem solving, and stress management to improve long-term self-sufficiency.
6. Utilize Samaritan House multi-disciplinary team model of practice to support families' needs and effectively collaborate with other agencies.
7. Complete client centered assessments with victims associated with both state and federal investigations involving their trafficking case to assess situations, service plan, and provide referrals for attorney legal advocacy as appropriate.
8. Complete all required internal and external reporting accurately and on time.
9. Participate in community collaboration groups and represent the organization to others as requested.
10. Maintain strict confidentiality regarding all human trafficking/sexual assault victims served.
11. Other duties as assigned.
