

I have the right to

Be treated with kindness

Express my feelings peacefully

Be talked to respectfully without being yelled at

Have time with my friends or family

Consider what is best for me

Expect honesty

Wear what makes me feel comfortable

Nurture my own hobbies and interests

Say no to any affection anytime, for any reason

Share my ideas and solutions to problems

Manage my own time

Talk to people without being accused of cheating

Have my privacy

Say no to whatever makes me uncomfortable

Go where I want to and leave when I want to

Earn and spend my own money

End a relationship that doesn't make me happy

Feel safe and be unafraid

Love. Respect. Equality.
